

Invitation to the CLC Global Workshop: Where Is the Spirit Leading Us? A Journey into Communal Discernment

TO THE WORLD COMMUNITY

Dear CLC Members,

The Global Formation Team warmly invites all CLC members to participate in our upcoming online workshop, Where is the Spirit leading us? A Journey into Communal Discernment. This formation experience will take place in November in the three languages and aims to deepen our understanding of communal discernment as cornerstone to our spiritual growth and our life in community, from the small group to the world level.

Objective of the Workshop

This workshop seeks to strengthen our collective formation journey by:

1. Unpacking the potential of communal discernment, a gift to CLC and the World
2. Clarifying concepts and working towards a common language around discernment
3. Reflecting on communal discernment as a way of being CLC
4. Exploring how world CLC has done communal discernment, while focusing on how it is done at group level

Workshop Outline

Participants will journey together through three interconnected ways:

1. Presentation
2. Testimonies of different experiences
3. Engaging with real-life experiences and shared reflections in community

Workshop Dates & Languages

To ensure accessibility for our world community, the workshop will be offered in three languages:

- SPANISH: November 14, at 5:00 p.m. Rome time
- ENGLISH 1: November 14, at 5:00 p.m. Rome time
- FRENCH: November 21, at 5:00 p.m. Rome time
- ENGLISH 2: November 21, at 12:00 Rome time

We warmly encourage you to join the session in your preferred language and share this experience with members of your formation from around the world.

Registration & Details

To take part in the session, you must register via the link below and fill in the required details. The deadline is 48 hours before the session (12 November for the sessions on 14 November, and 19 November for the sessions on 21 November). You will receive the link to join the session 24 hours before it begins.

Registration link (in three languages): Communal Discernment Workshop

We look forward to welcoming you and walking this journey together.

With warm regards,

The Global Formation Team

Rome, 26 October 2026